

Shattered by Reality

Dust Bolt

Truth laid down
In words to hollow wounds
Into the never again I'll wander
Blood drained mind
Violent declined

Butchered me back there
Cut me in the groin
Cut me in the leg
Profuse blood flowing
Tried to spill me in your form
An irrevocable failure
My vengeance on society's humiliation
Killer!

Cruelty, callousness beyond human feeling
Existence turned to execution
My nemesis revealing
There is no prison more relentless
Then your inner self
Your parasites look straight at me
You will see yourself

In violence

Truth laid down
Words to hollow wounds
Open my chest you will see
A shattered personality

Hateful morbid mind
Aggressions now arise
Orders and shapes designed for consciousness
This is your veil on your way to death

Truth laid down
In words to hollow wounds
Your lack of identity

Blood drained mind
Violent declined
Open my chest for you will see
I'm shattered by reality
