

If I Stop Drinkin'

Dustin Lynch

(If I stop drinkin')
(Said goodbye)

Slide that bottle down to me
I need me some of that Tennessee
Here's to her not next to me, pour up another round
Make it strong, man, make it burn
I forget how bad it hurts
I'll take hungover over her memory hangin' 'round

If I don't take a sip, I'm right back on your lips
I should quit, the only problem is

If I stop drinkin', baby, I'll start thinkin' maybe
I'll hit you up, say, "What's up?" like you never said goodbye
Leanin' on the bourbon is the only thing that's workin'
Without it, I'd be missin' you, wishin' that you'd change your mind
Yeah, 'cause sober me ain't over you
I'm knockin' back this hundred-proof
I'm in a mess, scared to death of missin' you
If I stop drinkin'

(If I stop drinkin')
(Goodbye)

I don't wanna go down memory lane
That's a two-lane road right to the pain
Can still see you like yesterday down on 30A

The sunset on your suntan, I can see it in the mirror of your Ray-Bans
This double shot's all I got, I don't stand a chance

If I stop drinkin', baby, I'll start thinkin' maybe
I'll hit you up, say, "What's up?" like you never said goodbye
Leanin' on the bourbon is the only thing that's workin'
Without it, I'd be missin' you, wishin' that you'd change your mind
Yeah, 'cause sober me ain't over you
I'm knockin' back this hundred-proof
I'm in a mess, scared to death of missin' you
If I stop drinkin'

(If I stop drinkin')
(Goodbye)

If I don't take a sip, I'm right back on your lips
I should quit, the only problem is

If I stop drinkin', baby, I'll start thinkin' maybe
I'll hit you up, say, "What's up?" like you never said goodbye
Leanin' on the bourbon is the only thing that's workin'
Without it, I'd be missin' you, wishin' that you'd change your mind
Yeah, 'cause sober me ain't over you
I'm knockin' back this hundred-proof
I'm in a mess, scared to death of missin' you
If I stop drinkin'

(If I stop drinkin')

(Goodbye)
(If I stop drinkin')
(Goodbye)

(If I stop drinkin')
