

You're one breath from my body
A satellite with stormy eyes
A heart that feels like running
But it's all right
The way that I see you there
While my chest comes undone
Like water runs and crests
No cease in this beating drum
Tailor don't leave here yet
The silk we're seeking
Starts as thread
Tailor go easy
I know you don't see it but
It starts as thread

I see the dark clouds bloom
But I don't need a saviour
So come in I'll take you
Down here I'll lay you
Only warm and only true
I hear those mountains call
For something more but there's nothing more
Than running my hands through your fresh cut hair
And your shape as winter falls

The way that I see you there
While my chest comes undone
Like water runs and crests
No cease in this beating drum
Tailor don't leave here yet
The silk we're seeking
Starts as thread
Tailor go easy
I know you don't see it but
It starts as thread
