

Wolves Are Waiting

Dustin Tebbutt

Wolves are waitin'
With karma and pain
Those fair that suffer
The soil of the tale

One long surrender
To rival and to stave
The foils of ready
Give ballast to the brave

And through your bodies
The echo of embrace
And how I'm sorry
For comin' home too late

And wolves were waitin'
With karma and pain
To impart this longin'
And I can't take it back
