

Dear Hearts and Gentle People

Dusty Springfield

I love the dear heart, and gentle people
Who live in my home town
Because the dear heart and gentle people will never, ever let y ou down
They read the good book from Friday till Monday
That's how the weekends go
I have a dream house I'll build there someday
With picket fence and rambling rose

I feel so welcome, each time that I return
My heart swells up just like a cloud
I love the dear heart and gentle people, who live and love in