What Are You Doing The Rest Of Your Life?

Dusty Springfield

What are you doing the rest of your life? North and south and east and west of your life I have only one request of your life That you spend it all with me

All the seasons and the times of your days All the nickels and the dimes of your days Let the reasons and rhymes of your days All begin and end with me

I want to see your face In every kind of light In fields of dawn And forests of the night And when you stand before the candles on a cake Oh, let me be the one to hear the silent wish you make

Those tomorrow's waiting deep in your eyes And the world of love you keep in your eyes I'll awaken what's asleep in your eyes It may take a kiss or two

Through all of my life Summer, winter, spring and fall of my life All I ever will recall of my life Is all of my life with you, ooh, ooh
