

Never Really Mine

Dutchavelli

(It's 1st Born, baby)
Yo

Yo, I guess she was never ever really mine (No)
Just someone I see at night
Or someone I speak to from time to time
If you ever needed me back then
All you'd do was just hit my line (Brrt)
Girl, what's your type?
Find someone that you really like (Trust)

But it woulda been different if I wanted you back (Yeah)
Put money in your bedroom drawer, you can keep that P's, I don't want that b ack
Didn't wanna see me in Pentonville
Guess that I owe you for this ten mill' plaque (Yeah)
I was on the run when I slept on your floor
Told me you never wanna see me go back (Facts)
She can see that my stars aligned
She was there when my card declined
Watch my old videos to pass the time
Like, how did it get so divisive?
I grip the wheel in this four-wheel drive
Send the location and pull up outside

Yo, I guess she was never ever really mine (No)
Just someone I see at night
Or someone I speak to from time to time
If you ever needed me back then
All you'd do was just hit my line (Brrt)
Girl, what's your type?
Find someone that you really like

She keep tellin' me, "Keep it real," let's keep it trill
You used to be the type that would stay at home
Now you don't no more, kinda lost your appeal
Tell me you loved me, I say, "That is love?" I wouldn't trust you still Doin' balloons in all of them clubs at night, I just pray you don't pop no p ills
Trust, I guess it was never ever really love
Find someone that you really want
It'd still be cool if you'd keep in touch
Coulda told you how I really felt 'til I realised my words don't mean that m uch
Girl, I'm a boss, just keep whatever I got

I guess she was never ever really mine (Nah)
Just someone I see at night
Or someone I speak to from time to time
If you ever needed me back then
All you'd do was just hit my line (Brrt)
Girl, what's your type?
Find someone that you really like
