

Say It

DVBBS

I was only hiding cause I wanna be found
Did you really love me if you hate me now
Why does it always end like this
You're blocking me out you're my solar eclipse
I'd carry the weight of the world
If it meant I could see you again
Why does it always end like this

If I could say it to your heart
Oh oh oh
Then you would understand what I know
If I could say it your heart
Oh oh oh
I promise that you'd never let go
You know I got these visions they trap my feelings
They wake my demons and keep me alone
If I could say it to your heart
Oh oh
I promise that you'd never let go
If I could say it to your heart

So many scars that
So many stitches
So many wounds that I could never heal
Lost in dark looking at pictures
Somebody tell me it was ever real
I leave the lights on
Hoping that you're finally gonna come home baby
Broken now I'm only singing sad songs forever

If I could say it to your heart
Oh oh oh
Then you would understand what I know
If I could say it your heart
Oh oh oh
I promise that you'd never let go
You know I got these visions they trap my feelings
They wake my demons and keep me alone
If I could say it to your heart
Oh oh
I promise that you'd never let go
If I could say it to your heart

If I could say it to your heart
If I could say it to your heart
If I could say it to your heart
