Tinted Eyes

DVBBS

Keep me in your prayers
Got me runnin' scared
You turn me into someone I don't want to be

But I don't even care though
I'm dead and unaware though
I only feel alive when you hurt me

Spend whatever on you
Spend a minute on you
I know I'm gonna lose
I do it anyway

There's a killer in you
And it's killing me too
I know I'm gonna lose
I do it anyway

Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes
This don't feel right
I should know better
Just like a sin
Those tinted eyes
Hold your disguise
I should know better

Oooh, oooh
Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes
Oooh, oooh
Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes

Yeah
All I want is how I found ya
No need to change while you feel the pressure
All the nights, all nostalgia
I need something strong to get me through forever

Like a potion
Bottled up emotions
Back and forth and up and down
Just going through the motions
I'm just hoping
You don't leave me broken
Round and round, we lost and found
The meaning of devotion

You say
That you think this could last forever
I can't
Lie to you to make it better
You say
We'll make it through the stormy weather
But I told ya, I told ya, I told ya

Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes
This don't feel right
Just like a sin
Those tinted eyes
Hold your disguise

Oooh, oooh
Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes
Oooh, oooh
Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes

Oooh, oooh
Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes
Oooh, oooh
Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes

Oooh, oooh
Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes
Oooh, oooh
Don't temp me with
Those tinted eyes
