Where Do We Go

DVBBS

Where do we go?
Where do we go?
Whenever you're head is hanging low
Maybe you're scared, up in the air
I know a place where we can go

Where do we hide?
Where do we cry?
I know you're not the only one
Whenever you're down
I know a place where we belong

You feel like you're falling
You feel like you're far away
Lost in the dark, breaking apart
But I know you'll be safe

You're taking the long road
There's no need to run
At the end of the day
I know a place, a place where we belong

Where do we go?
Where do we go?
Whenever you're head is hanging low
Maybe you're scared, up in the air
I know a place where we can go

Where do we hide?
Where do we cry?
I know you're not the only one
Whenever you're down, down on the ground
I know a place where we belong

Where do we go?
Where do we go?
Whenever you're head is hanging low
Maybe you're scared, up in the air
I know a place where we can go

Where do we hide?
Where do we cry?
I know you're not the only one
Whenever you're down, down on the ground
I know a place where we belong

How can you sleep?
How can you dream?
When you lost in the night
I'll lead the way, keeping you safe
You won't be left behind

Hold on to me tight
I'll ease your mind
You are never alone cause I know
A place where we belong

You feel like you're falling
You feel like you're far away
Lost in the dark, breaking apart
But I know you'll be safe

You're taking the long road
There's no need to run
At the end of the day
I know a place, a place where we belong

Where do we go?
Where do we go?
Whenever you're head is hanging low
Maybe you're scared, up in the air
I know a place where we can go

Where do we hide?
Where do we cry?
I know you're not the only one
Whenever you're down, down on the ground
I know a place where we belong

Where do we go?
Where do we go?
Whenever you're head is hanging low
Maybe you're scared, up in the air
I know a place where we can go

Where do we hide?
Where do we cry?
I know you're not the only one
Whenever you're down, down on the ground
I know a place where we belong
