

In Between

dvsn

Let me start by saying sorry
Some days I take your time for granted
You could be the star in my universe
If I just took time to plan it
Told me secrets you ain't wanna
Trust is big for you
That's why I'm keeping it a hunna
Crazy vulnerable shit in common just keeps us apart when We should be starting to keep our promises, we could be promisi ng
You say I'm closed off
Let's open up and take our clothes off

I don't want nothing in between us
Nothing there to stop the feeling
I don't want nothing in between us
You got me thinking this might be love

You know what I want now
Don't wanna be wrapped up no
I wanna put my guard down
Let it all out, that's on God now
I'd lose myself to find you
Cause I see myself inside you
But

I don't want nothing in between us
Nothing there to stop the feeling
I don't want nothing in between us
You got me thinking this might be love

I don't want nothing in between us

I don't want nothing in between us
We have it baby, that will be us
