

Action Man

Dwarves

Look up high in the sky, don't even stop to ask why.
It's a bird, it's a plane, it's a man (?) he's gone by.
Like a bird from the blue, and with an aim that is true,
but you better beware, he's coming for you.
Action man (got thrills if you want it),
Action Man (acting in peace),
Action Man from outer space.
He'll never run from a fight, and he'll fight for what's right.
And it's right that he'll fly from out of the sky at the speed of light, good night!
