Day at a Time

Dwele

Hey, Dwele it's—
I'm just callin' to see how you doin'
I ain't hollered at you in a minute
Um, and if you could like, call me, whatever
I really appreciate it 'cause I need to know what it's gon' be 'Cause um, this right now ain't workin'
With what's goin' on, you know, I'm—I need to know what's up
Are we gon' do this or not?
Call me when you can and as soon as you get this message, alrig ht?
Peace

We can only cherish moments shared with each other
So let's use these feelings of hope for reasons to be lovin'
I know today is hard but tomorrow brings another sunrise
Today's tomorrow and I'm gonna take it

One day at a time
You should know I care
Day at a time, oh, I, I

We don't know what tomorrow holds for this love thang
Will this body and soul be lured to another woman?
Or maybe things will be stronger between you and I
Mmm, regardless, we'll just take things

One day at a time (Funny how things)
We'll live (Funny how things)
One day at time (Funny how things)
We'll live (Funny how things)
One day at a time (Funny how, funny how)
We'll live (Funny how things)

Ooh, one day at time I'll take it
I got love for you even if it comes
That I don't show sometimes
One day at a time the sun flies
Whether you don't see it or not it still shines divine
Even if the weather blinds you sometimes (Blinds your eyes)

Ay, hey
Ay, ay
Ay, ay, ay
One day at a time, ye
