Dwellings

Arguments are only as good
As your armaments and way with words
Flying away, messages attached to birds
You're tipping the scales in your favor
You're not the person, not the friend I remember

Did it just hit you just like a train?
The thought that's aching inside your brain
Facial expressions well explained without thinking, without thinking
Your eyes now roaming around the room
Escaping is surely the plan for you
'Cause certain doom isn't in your schedule
Are you looking for a fire waiting for fuel?
I think you'd show them a thing
Oh, I think you'd show them a thing or two, or two, or two, or two

You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway
You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway
You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway
You didn't bring anything

You didn't bring anything anyway
You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway
You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway
You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway

Anyway, now go leave us alone
Take what you own
You didn't bring anything anyway
You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway
You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway, anyway

Your argument is only as good
As your armament and way with words
Flying away, messages attached to birds
You're tipping the scales in your favor
You're not the person, not the friend I remember
I remember, I remember

Did it just hit you like a train?
The thought that's aching in your brain

I think you'd show them a thing
I think you'd show them a thing or two, or two, or two

Go
Leave us alone, it's been nice knowing you
Don't mind me, mind me showing you the door
Which I'll show more and more
And more and more and more

Go
Leave us alone
Take what you own
You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway

Go
Leave us alone
Take what you own, take what you own
You didn't bring anything anyway
You didn't bring anything anyway, anyway, anyway
