

It's All There

Dwellings

You want to read me
You want to read me
You want to read me

Trapped in a box all of your thoughts of reality
All the concepts, all the progress you've summed up to dream
And it's all there, and it's all there, it's all there
I swear, I swear
And it's all there, it's all there I swear
It's all there I swear
It's all there I swear

I can't tell if you believe
The tales you sell, they buy relief
You say it's fine to cross the line
Between the living and deceased
I can't tell if you believe in fortune telling
The tales you sell, they buy relief and there's no telling
Who I am or who'll I'll be
You say it's fine to cross the line
Between the living and deceased
Fortune teller

Trapped in a box all of your thoughts of reality
All the concepts, all the progress you've summed up to dream
And it's all there, it's all there
No, no, it's there, it's all there
No, no, no, no, no, no (It's there)
No, no, no (It's all there)
No, no, no (It's there)
No, no, no (It's all there)

Don't say it's fake or say it's for their sake
You say they're safe or do you say
As long as you get paid playing a guessing game
Their future stays the same
I say it's highway robbery, highway robbery
Don't say it's fake or say it's for their sake
You say they're safe or do you say
As long as you get paid playing a guessing game
Their future stays the same
I say it's highway robbery, highway robbery
Highway robbery, highway robbery

Give them sense of purpose
Is it worth it? I don't know if I agree if all you need is second chances
Chances are you will succeed
(Chances are you, chances are you)
Chances are
(Chances are you, chances are you)
Chances are

I can't tell if you believe in fortune telling
The tales you sell they buy relief and there's no telling
Who I am or who'll I'll be
You say it's fine to cross the line

Between the living and deceased
