Overcoming all your fears
Through visual stimulation
By seeing them firsthand
Darkness, fog, subliminal messages
About past and future events
Unfolding to what they desire
Can't acquire, this isn't a win or lose situation
This is visual stimulation
By seeing it firsthand

Such a task to break ground you thought was bedrock
There's something under that disguised in the dialogue
Main objectives shrouded by ulterior motives
None of which can be ultimately evil despite the context
An image is only taught to be frightful
Just another part of a thousand words
To be insightful or describe it with
To be insightful or describe it
This kind of story, it gets me going
It's like there could be another showing
To see it all firsthand, to see it all firsthand

Overcoming all your fears
Through visual stimulation
By seeing them firsthand
Darkness, fog, subliminal messages
About past and future events
Unfolding to what they desire
Can't acquire, this isn't a win or lose situation
This is visual stimulation
By seeing it firsthand, oh

I'm running for my life and I ain't know where else to be
I got no kids, no wife, and I ain't got no mouth to feed
I love it when I get to break into my character
But hate it when you try to break down all my barriers
I'm running for my life and I ain't know where else to be
I got no kids, no wife, and I ain't got no mouth to feed
I love it when I get to break into my character
But hate it when you try to break down all my barriers
Girl, I wanna show you what I've got
When I'm in fear for my life
Is it irrational? Feels only natural
'Cause I don't know when I should quit

I don't know when, I don't know when I should quit
I don't know when I should quit

Quickly, she takes to the hills silent as the wind
I can't believe I could capture her without her skin
Leave me to my alterations, trap your soul into a gem
I don't want or need to chase destruction
But go if you want, you can

'Cause I don't play games, games that frighten me
But I'll play them with you if you want me to
'Cause I don't play games, games that frighten me

But I'll play them with you if you want me to
'Cause I don't play games, games that frighten me
But I'll play them with you if you want me to
'Cause I don't play games, games that frighten me
But I'll play them with you if you want me to

Overcoming all your fears
Through visual stimulation
By seeing them firsthand (If you want me to)
Darkness, fog, and subliminal messages
About past and future events
Unfolding to what they desire
Can't acquire, this isn't a win or lose situation
This is visual stimulation
By seeing it firsthand
This is visual stimulation
