

A Dream That Never Ends

Dwight Yoakam

It's all right
It's okay
If you leave me
If you must go
Know that I will understand
But 'til then
I will hope
For a dream that never ends
And if I awake
I'll close my eyes
And just pretend

I walk
Where no one goes before me
I walk
Where others fear to tread
And I walk into darkness
Without knowing
If you and I
Will ever meet again

It's all right
It's okay
If you leave me
If you must go
Know that I will understand
But 'til then
I will hope
For a dream that never ends
And if I awake
I'll close my eyes
And just pretend

But 'til then
I will hope
For a dream that never ends
And if I awake
I'll close my eyes
And just pretend

I walk
Where no one goes before me
I walk
Where others fear to tread
And I walk into darkness
Without knowing
If you and I
Will ever meet again

It's all right
It's okay
If you leave me
If you must go
Know that I will understand
But 'til then
I will hope

And if I awake
I'll close my eyes
And just pretend

And if I awake
I'll close my eyes
And just pretend
As I hope
For a dream
That never ends
