Alright, I'm Wrong

Dwight Yoakam

Well alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong
Well alright, alright I didn't know you felt that strong
Well alright you made your point
I didn't plan to stay this long
Alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong

You said that love could make a king
Give up his crown for this one thing
I was lookin' for a little princess
For just one night
But alright, alright yeah... yeah...

CHORUS:
Well alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong
Well alright, alright I didn't know you felt that strong
Well alright you made your point, I didn't plan to stay this lo ng
So alright, alright, alright, alright girl I'm wrong

Well I heard that love's flame can blind
But slowly burn out over time
Now we'll know that it just gets stronger and I can see you're right
As the years go by
