

Words

Dwight Yoakam

Words, words
Words are not my friend
Mm, words
Words only take, they never live

So whisper if you say them
Or maybe don't speak them at all
'Cause they'll watch as you stumble
Then laugh when you fall

So whisper if you say them
Maybe don't speak them at all
They'll watch as you stumble
Then just laugh when you fall

Words, words
Words expose you as a fool
Words, words have been the means
For every voice I've ever heard be cruel
