

Tremor

Dying Passion

Your hands are shaking
Heartbeat accompanies that devil inside you
All you can do is wait till he leaves

There's no awakening
The game you chose to play
Takes so much more than you can give away

Nothing of that left
Only your compunction
Break the mirror
You still see your reflection

Your mind is falling apart
You are trying to put all the pieces
Back together

Who is to blame now?
You blame all the world
Take down all of them
Who are pushing you to your end

Feel the pain
Did you already forget?
Take all the shame that you cannot stand and you do it again
There's no way out

Am I awake or am I sleeping
I don't know, I just want to get out
A moment that is not to remember
What is real? I can't recognize
Am I awake or am I sleeping
Please take me out
Screaming inside, falling apart
It's over now
