

Bound by Contrition

Dying Wish

Congregate
Torches lit with fire
Fragility and fear
In its most evil form

Hateful slurs escalate
Blood hits the pavement
Of the streets we share as home

Fight fire with fire
Make fascists hide
Violence is the answer
To win this war

Protect
Those who can't protect themselves
Pigs turn their back to the true threat

Point weapons in the faces
Of your allies
It's time for you
To pick a fucking side

Fight fire with fire
Make fascists hide
Violence is the answer
To win this fucking war

What side of history
Do you take to your grave?
Swallow your pride
Admit your mistakes
Take this to your grave

Exposing your shame
Violence is the answer
Admit your mistakes
Violence is the answer
