

Surrender Everything

Dying Wish

I no longer devote to your crumbling kingdom
I am the knife that collects your blood
Your sons and daughters all led to slaughter
At the sacrifice of our morality

The master cannot speak my name
Won't care if I live or die
Aching to hear the broken beg to survive
A body count
Where power is found
The last sands of the hourglass fall
Apocalypse bound

Your god is a dollar sign
Drenched in the loss of the fool
Convictions of morbid greed
A shadow of grief surrounds you

We surrender everything for despair in return
I would kill to watch these fucking cowards burn
We surrender everything for despair in return
I would kill to watch these fucking cowards burn
Burn

For every child in chaos
For every mother in fear
For every man in chains
A reckoning is near
For every child in chaos
For every mother in fear
For every man in chains
A reckoning is near

We surrender everything for despair in return
I would kill to watch these fucking cowards burn
We surrender everything for despair in return
I would kill to watch these fucking cowards burn

I no longer devote to your crumbling kingdom
I am the knife that collects your blood
Your sons and daughters all led to slaughter
Apocalypse bound

Go
A reckoning is near
A reckoning is near
