

Tongues of Lead

Dying Wish

Jealousy is the coward's way
To seek revenge for defeat
Cast the blame in my direction
Cope with self inflicted agony

Dreadful dance with your deception

No longer will you slip through my fingertips
Taste your failure as it stifles you

I poured my soul and gave it all
As my sacrifice

I see right through
Your shattered self
Cast onto me
Your worthless cries

Throw your stones
With an empty hand
Seeking my downfall
Resentful obsession
A dreadful dance
With your deception

Leader of the herd
Fellowship of lies
Taste your failure
I hope you choke

Your tongue will collapse
When you speak of me

My fall you will never see
You will never see
I hope you choke on your failure
