

get over you

Dylan Conrique

Get over you

You've been nailed up in my brain
Is it cool that I don't mind you there?
Ever since you walked away
I've been seating like an empty shell

Oh us, how we come back just like magnets
At once, we're done, how did this happen?

Is there a reason I can't get over you?
Everybody says it's not that hard to do
But maybe in the end I can't pretend
I wouldn't come running back to you
And I wonder, oh, I wonder
Is there a reason I can't

Get over you
Tell me, won't somebody tell me
I need a reason
To get over you
Tell me, won't somebody tell me
I need a reason
To get over you

Maybe I've got more to say
I don't think that we ran out of love
But we left it on the page
Don't you think that we got more in us?

Oh us, how we come back just like magnets
At once, we're done, how did this happen?

Is there a reason I can't get over you?
Everybody says it's not that hard to do
But maybe in the end I can't pretend
I wouldn't come running back to you
And I wonder, oh, I wonder
Is there a reason I can't

Get over you
Tell me, won't somebody tell me
I need a reason
To get over you
Tell me, won't somebody tell me
I need a reason
To get over you

Maybe in the next life, it's you and I
Maybe in the timeline, we get it right (To get over you)
Maybe in the next life, it's you and I (To get over you)
Maybe in the timeline, we get it right

Is there a reason I can't get over you?
'Cause I'm finding it's a little hard to do
And I know in the end I can't pretend
I wouldn't come running back to you

And I wonder, oh, I wonder
Is there a reason I can't Get over you
