

Never Change

Dylan Conrique

This would have worked on me 'bout a year ago
Saying "Yes, it's okay," take the blame for all you've done
But I'm sick and tired of footprints all over me
Funny how you didn't show any sympathy, said a lot

But I've moved on, the old me's gone
But you're still trying to reel me in, promise that won't work
again

I carried all your weight
Each ounce of your mistakes
I learned the hardest ways
Some people never change
I learned to walk away
I'm finally seeing straight
You chose to stay the same
Some people never change

You got so good at playing the victim
Telling everyone I'm the problem when I'm not Oh, you let this whole thing come to a sudden end
Don't forget I buried your secrets
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh

'Cause I've moved on, the old me's gone
But you're still trying to reel me in, promise that won't work
again

I carried all your weight
Each ounce of your mistakes
I learned the hardest ways
Some people never change
I learned to walk away
I'm finally seeing straight
You chose to stay the same
Some people never change

Some people never change
