

Dark Side

Dylan Gardner

Dark side under white wings that nobody sees
Baby there's a dark side that you're hiding, secret enemy
I'm talking to who now?
Why you wanna hurt me?
Baby please
Baby please

You can paint yourself a good lie
Well I can paint myself a good guy
Hit the switch you can let them see
That you can't control your own life
You got a mind like a switchblade
And I'm right up against the knife
Let me crawl into your mind's eye
And tell the devil that I said hi
You dropped your halo on the floor

Dark side under white wings that nobody sees
Baby there's a dark side that you're hiding, secret enemy
I'm talking to who now?
Why you wanna hurt me?
Baby please
Baby please

And I'm on my knees
I don't believe
How many
People you can be

You're forever effervescent
The way you're running from your senses
You had me going for a second
Till I finally found the edges
It feels so weird to be right
But I wish I wasn't half the time

(Dark side under white wings that nobody sees)
Baby there's a dark side that you're hiding, secret enemy
I'm talking to who now?
Why you wanna hurt me?
Baby please
Baby please

And I'm on my knees
I don't believe
How many
People you can be

And I'm on my knees
I don't believe
How many
People you can be

Dark side
