

Heroes Tonight

Dylan Gardner

I'll sit beside you on this house we've made
The little dreams that you've always wanted makes me feel we got a lot in common
You'll wonder to yourself why you're afraid
The light of day's never gonna darken
Take a look at what we started now
I think I'm feeling something new
I think I'm feeling new with you
I think I'm feeling something new
We got a lot we'll always keep singing

In the midnight, up in the sky, we'll all be heroes tonight
I'm the king of the world, nothings gonna stop me
In the midnight, up in the sky, we'll all be heroes tonight
We'll be heroes tonight; we'll be heroes tonight

Are we ever gonna live this way
I hope we'll always live this way
Are we ever gonna live this way
And I don't need no cape or any lights tonight
The real hero's been always waiting; day-to-day you're always saving
I swear I think I've fallen in love tonight
Or maybe I'm not finally dreaming, the world around me is really living now
I think I'm feeling something new
I think I'm feeling new with you
I think I'm feeling something new
We got a lot we'll always keep singing

In the midnight, up in the sky, we'll all be heroes tonight
I'm the king of the world, nothings gonna stop me
In the midnight, up in the sky, we'll all be heroes tonight
We'll be heroes tonight; we'll be heroes tonight
