

Hit Me With the Lights Out

Dylan Gardner

Started with my head caught in between
It didn't even mean that much to me
Then every single night since the very last time
I saw you I don't even know what's wrong with me

I'm fighting with the truth I don't believe
I don't even know you personally
And now I think I might be losing it completely
Hoping that you call me accidentally

Oh no, you're messing with my head
Oh no, don't believe it when you said
It was only a kiss

Oh! You hit me with the lights out
Now I've gotta shoot you down
Oh! You hit me with the lights out
How am I gonna stop it now
It was only supposed to be a kiss
Wasn't ever supposed to be like this
Oh! You hit me with the lights out
Now I've gotta shoot you down

I try to think back how it used to be
When everything fit so perfectly
Was it something you said? Something you did?
That made it all come crashing down on me

Now I'm fighting with myself and I can't believe
That everything I know is crumbling
It doesn't make sense, I'm losing my head
And I just want to tell myself
It was only a kiss

Oh! You hit me with the lights out
Now I've gotta shoot you down
Oh! You hit me with the lights out
How am I gonna stop it now
It was only supposed to be a kiss
Wasn't ever supposed to be like this
Oh! You hit me with the lights out
Now I've gotta shoot you down

'Cause you're messing with my head
Oh no, I don't believe it when you
You said
It was only a kiss

Oh! You hit me with the lights out
Now I've gotta shoot you down
Oh! You hit me with the lights out
How am I gonna stop it now
It was only supposed to be a kiss
Wasn't ever supposed to be like this
Oh! You hit me with the lights out
Now I've gotta shoot you down

Ah...
Now I've gotta shoot you down
It was only supposed to be a kiss
Wasn't ever supposed to be like this
Oh! You hit me with the lights out
Now I've gotta shoot you down
