

Ritual

Dylan Gardner

I saw you fading through my mirror
The pale light underneath my door

Could I make it disappear?
Could I keep it out of here?
Would I let a secret die to let you go?

You're a ritual
A ritual
You're a ritual
A ritual

I saw you underneath my bed
A past life crawling in my head

Could I make it disappear?
Could I keep it out of here?
Would I let a secret die to let you go?

You're a ritual
A ritual
You're a ritual
A ritual
You're a ritual
A ritual
You're a ritual
A ritual

And I can hide behind the face I used to know
But it's the face I find with nowhere left to go

You're a ritual
A ritual
You're a ritual
A ritual
You're a ritual
A ritual
You're a ritual
A ritual
