

Bitter Winds

Dylan Gossett

Leaves turnin' brown, it's down to 54
Cold is moving into Texas and it's moving out the warm
These bitter winds, comin' soon again
Chapped lips asking for tips, tryna find more love to lend, oh

And family ties, are moving closer in
Find the time to hear the chimes of a wedding once again
I need it bad, more than I did before
To feel the warmth of a fire and a woman that I adore, oh

Can this all please slow down
Another year is burning out
The sun don't wait for someone like me
Who's got more wants than needs
So I'll sit still as seasons move on
Though I hate to watch 'em leave
I hate to watch 'em leave

I see your breath while I'm holding mine
Your face lit up by the moon, my face lit up by your eyes
I'm singing songs, the family sings along
With my feet buried in the gravel my heart buried in my wrongs

Can this all just please slow down
Another year is burning out
The sun don't wait for someone like me
Who's got more wants than needs
So I'll sit still as seasons move on
Though I hate to watch 'em leave
I hate to watch 'em leave

It won't be long, today will carry on
Til' tomorrow is the past, the future is long gone

Can this all just please slow down
Another year is burning out
The sun don't wait for someone like me
Who's got more wants than needs
So I'll sit still as seasons move on
Though I hate to watch 'em leave
Hate to watch 'em leave
