

Bad At Breaking Up

Dylan Schneider

You'd think it's over by the way we're talking to each other
But you'll come over by the time that bottle's empty
You said you hate me I said "Girl you're just like all the others"
But that goes out the door when you walk through mine and kiss me
Oh, then we forget what we were fighting for Girl I guess we're just

Bad at breaking up
Bad at moving on
Bad at being single on them Friday nights alone
There ain't no fixing you and me
No shot after two or three
Chasing what we used to be when it used to be love
We're bad at breaking up
We're bad at breaking up

Your mama's overhearing 'bout me so you started lying
Our friends are tired of giving good advice
Ain't like we don't know
How this kinda goodbye's supposed to go
We can't let this go cause

We're bad at breaking up
Bad at moving on
Bad at being single on them Friday nights alone
There ain't no fixing you and me
No shot after two or three
Chasing what we used to be when it used to be love
We're bad at breaking up
We're bad at breaking up

We're good at saying sorry, leaving last time in the dust
Good at messing these bed sheets up but

We're bad at breaking up
Bad at moving on
Bad at being single on them Friday nights alone
There ain't no fixing you and me
No shot after two or three
Chasing what we used to be when it used to be love
We're bad at breaking up
We're bad at breaking up
Bad at breaking, bad at breaking, bad at breaking
We're bad at breaking up
