

Here Comes The Sun

Dylan Schneider

Laying in this bed
You'd think this love was heaven sent
But it ain't I guess
In the morning girl we won't make sense
It's round and round we go
I can see that goodbye
Peeking through them blinds

Here comes the sun
There goes the night
There goes the fire
And the look in your eyes
Yeah here come the miles
You gon be driving
Spinning your tires
Leaving me right behind 'em
And just like the whiskey
You gon be gone
You won't be with me
When the lights come on
Yeah here comes the sun
Here comes the sun

We were bad
From the start
But we can't quit cause the hardest part
Is we're good in the dark
But when daylight breaks you'll break my heart
It's round and round we go
Every time we turn around
Our time is running out

Girl here comes the sun
There goes the night
There goes the fire
And the look in your eyes
Yeah here come the miles
You gon be driving
Spinning your tires
Leaving me right behind 'em
And just like the whiskey
You gon be gone
You won't be with me
When the lights come on
Yeah here comes the sun
Here comes the sun

Here comes the sun
There goes the night
There goes the fire
You gon be driving
Spinning your tires
You gon be gone

You won't be with me
Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
