

Without June

Dylan Schneider

Like a horse without a rider
A pack without a lighter
A midnight desert sky without a moon
Like a ship without a sail
A train running off the rails
A glass of whiskey without the hundred proof
Yeah baby without you

I'm just a rolling stone
Without a hill to fall down
I'm far from home
Stuck in another ghost town
Yeah I know I'm
Just a cowboy with no sunset to ride into
Yeah baby without you
I'm Johnny without June

Like a record without a needle
A church without the people
Without your hand to hold
Yeah, I know I'd be

Just a rolling stone
Without a hill to fall down
I'm far from home
Stuck in another ghost town
Yeah I know I'm
Just a cowboy with no sunset to ride into
Yeah baby without you
I'm Johnny without June

Like a ring without the fire
I wouldn't have no line to walk
I'd be locked up in Folsom Prison without the blues
'Cause without you

Yeah, I'm just a rolling stone
Without a hill to fall down
I'm far from home
Stuck in another ghost town
Yeah I know I'm
Just a cowboy with no sunset to ride into
Yeah baby without you
I'm Johnny without June
Without June
