

Give Me More

Dylan Scott

You hit me like a sunrise baby,
Your beauty is every bit of amazin',
I just wanna lay here & soak it up,

You make everythin' that's good feel better,
I can never give you up, no never...never...ever...love so much

Give me more, give me more, give me more of you
I can't control it, I want you bad and you know it, yeah
Give me more, give me more, give me more of you
Girl I ain't kiddin' your kisses are so dang addictin' yeah
I can't get enough, want every bit of, your love
Give me more me, give me more, give me more of you

You got me trippin' n slippin' a little further in deeper n deeper and baby I think I like it,
Oh I like it, better yet I love what your doin' when you do it to me

Give me more, give me more, give me more of you
I can't control it, I want you bad and you know it, yeah
Give me more, give me more, give me more of you
Girl I ain't kiddin' your kisses are so dang addictin' yeah
I can't get enough, want every bit of, your love
Give me more me, give me more, give me more of you

Give me more of that pretty little smile,
Give me more of them pretty blue eyes,
I'll give you everythin' I've got yeah, girl that's right, Imma be that guy!

Give me more, give me more, give me more of you
I can't control it, I want you bad and you know it, yeah
Give me more, give me more, give me more of you
Girl I ain't kiddin' your kisses are so dang addictin' yeah
I can't get enough, want every bit of, your love
So give me more me, give me more, give me more of you
