

Two Christmas Trees

Dylan Scott

Today I found a letter addressed to Old Saint Nick
I can't believe the words I read came from a boy just six
It read "Santa there's been some changes at our house this year
And I had to let you know 'cause Christmas time is near"

Leave my bike at Daddy's he wants to see me ride
Leave my train at Mama's so I can play inside
I know this sounds confusing, but it's really not to me
Santa I've got two Christmas trees

A tear from my eye fell to the letter in my hand
I realized my little boy was quite a little man
I thought he would be thinkin' of all his Christmas toys
But he was more concerned how he could spread his Christmas joy

Leave my bike at Daddy's he wants to see me ride
Leave my train at Mama's so I can play inside
I know this sounds confusing, but it's really not to me
Santa I've got two Christmas trees

I don't wanna cause ya trouble, I know you're a busy man
But when you read my letter, I know you'll understand

Leave my bike at Daddy's he wants to see me ride
And leave my train at Mama's so I can play inside
I know this sounds confusing, but it's really not to me
Santa I've got two Christmas trees
