Ask Me

Dylan Sinclair

If I lie to myself enough
And shape my own reality (Ay, ay, ay)
Whatever I tell myself (Ay)
Becomes the truth (Ay, ay, ay)

Might be feeling her, but if you ask me
I'ma say that it is not what you think this is
'Cause if I say it enough it becomes real
I can't help it if I feel her like that
Either way she'll have nothing on you

This isn't some shit to be proud of
But I can't help but feel a way if I do (Ay, ay, ay)
Anyone controlling (Anyone controlling)
Their reality is lying to themselves (Ay, ay, ay)

Might be feeling her, but if you ask me
I'ma say that it is not what you think this is (Not what you think this is)
'Cause if I say it enough it becomes real
I can't help it if I feel her like that
Either way she'll have nothing on you

If I lie to myself enough
