

Someone's gonna tell your man
Whatchu been doing with your friends and mine too
You get naughty every time you're on this side
What if he finds out are you
Sure you wanna be with him?
If you're creepin' into
The crib past midnight
You're choosing the crew over your boo

Bland, raw, true
You don't even sugarcoat the things you wanna do
Posting pictures of you girl saying he's proud of you
But your man don't know what you're on when you keep coming through
Tell me secrets and I keep em' cause you're fire
But you should leave him girl I see that you're so tired
Of a one man's love
Just give it up cause

Someone's gonna tell your man
Whatchu been doing with your friends and mine too
You get naughty every time you're on this side
What if he finds out are you
Sure you wanna be with him?
If you're creepin' into
The crib past midnight
You're choosing the crew over your boo

Tension since the club
Back at apartment months ago
You were single back then
I was somebody's man
It's never the right time for us
I'm still at the back of your mind, so what?
You stay stuck on my body
In that Cavalli
We won't call it cheating
But you keep on sneaking
Around him are you bout him forreal

Someone's gonna tell your man
Whatchu been doing with your friends and mine too
You get naughty every time you're on this side
What if he finds out are you
Sure you wanna be with him?
If you're creepin' into
The crib past midnight
You're choosing the crew over your boo

Are you gonna stay locked in with your babe
Are you gonna stay locked in with your babe
Oh
