

Menace

Dylan Sinclair

(Amen)

I've not said or heard any apologies
I've only heard everyone but me
But all of this hurts me
And now I have no peace
And now I have no spring
And now I can't clime trees
Every man for themselves
I gotta stay healthy
That's your own life, gotta move stealthy
Thank you young D, it's a pleasure to meet
Besides that, you've always have heard this from me
Try moving on, not from the love
And beauty of this, by hurting a queen
Try holding tight, without starting fights
With your own damn self
We're friends, known you well

You are a menace to society
Society
You've done all this in full sobriety
Sobriety

Make your bed swim (make your bed swim)
And your tears did (and your tears did)
Drench the couch lamp (drench the couch lamp)
Continue to weep (continue to weep)
Treasure the girl (treasure the girl)
You've sent yourself (you've sent yourself)
Firm as I smell (firm as I smell)
From the top shelf (from the top shelf)

You are a menace to society
Society (society, society)
You've done all this in full sobriety
Sobriety

Ah
Yeah
Ah
Everyday strove by, I feel like a menace
I done hurt so many women
But I swear that I never meant it
Okay I thought it was for me
But now I'm just saying, forget it
I had no patience, but damn it
For the rest of the night I regret it, uh
I had to dead it yeah
We never let it, uh
We just lit that, instead of that man we just hit it
Straight to the fire, uh
Look now we tired, uh
You called me crazy and I just be callin' you liar, uh
Goin' in circles, uh
We saying hurtful things
Goin' in circles, uh

We don't deserve this pain
Wanting forever, uh
Me you together
But getting that right, man at that times it feels like I'll never, uh
Gotta do better, yeah
Gotta do better, uh
Sick of the menace in me that you search in for terror, uh
Sick of mistakes, uh
Sick of the errors, uh
Sick of the grief, yeah
Needed some pleasure, yeah

You are a menace to society
Society
You've done all this in full sobriety
Sobriety
