

Suppress

Dylan Sinclair

You came to me tonight
You asked me how I knew her
I got defensive like
I had something to hide
You came to me tonight
Night night
Night
Night night

You came to me tonight
And just one hour later
Began to give your side
Said you keep it all inside
You came to me tonight
Night night
Night
Night night

I suppress my emotions and
I put all of my burdens on you
And I know it got heavy
I wish I was ready
To be a much better
Boyfriend
To make them aware that I cuffed you
To hold and to share what we already know
But set it in stone
Set it in stone

I kick my feet up like I'm a fetus
Like I don't need us, cross from the bisha
Baby, I need ya
But I need me too
So I'm trying not to lose myself in you
You're losing self in me 'cause
I make you go crazy love
I always have an answer
And then we get to laughter
I say it doesn't matter
You came to me tonight
Night night
Night
Night night

I suppress my emotions and
And I know it got heavy
I wish I was ready
To be a much better
Boyfriend
To make them aware that I cuffed you
To hold and to share what we already know
But set it in stone
Set it in stone
