Dymytry

Bow to no leaders
Tales from the past
Keep on reminding
How long will it last?
Peace in the distance
Blind eyes can't see
Surrounded by sorrow
Will it ever change?

Will we ever find peace when we fall asleep
Will we bury our nightmares 6 feet deep
In a never ending war we're marching on
Cause we are the ones to prevail
Will we cover our scars or face defeat
We're not gonna play their games

Why can't we stop these ravaging wars
Let's leave the pain behind, no hurt forevermore
We shall never cross this line
Nobody wants another 1939

Souls are divided
Nothing's the same
Children are crying
Suffer painful deaths

In a never ending war we're marching on
Cause we are the ones to prevail
Will we cover our scars or face defeat
We're not gonna play their games

Why can't we stop these ravaging wars
Let's leave the pain behind, no hurt forevermore
We shall never cross this line
Nobody wants another 1939

Keep on reminding
1939
Never again
Same mistakes we always make
Countless lives, put at stake
We never learn, we always fail
When will we leave this bloody trail?

When we fall asleep
Why can't we stop these ravaging wars
Let's leave the pain behind, no hurt forevermore
We shall never cross this line
Nobody wants another 1939

Why can't we stop these ravaging wars
Let's leave the pain behind, no hurt forevermore
We shall never cross this line
Nobody will survive another 1939
