

Enemy List

Dymytry

Today I start a new life
I rise above the storm
Nobody can control me
No more
I know your name, you'll never get away
I'll stand my ground and ever disobey
You're none of my kind, my kind

Arms wide open, still unbroken
Dare to stop me now

Whatever you say, whatever you do
I will not change, won't follow you
Whatever you try, you'll never be missed
Welcome to My enemy list
Whatever you say, whatever you do
I will not change, won't follow you
Whatever you try, you fail to exist
Welcome to my enemy list

Your bitterness won't touch me
I don't feel any pain
Don't ever cross the red line
It's mine

Arms wide open, still unbroken
Dare to stop me now

Whatever you say, whatever you do
I will not change, won't follow you
Whatever you try, you'll never be missed
Welcome to my enemy list
Whatever you say, whatever you do
I will not change, won't follow you
Whatever you try, you fail to exist
Welcome to my enemy list

I'll put your name on my enemy list
I'll put your name
I'll put your name on my enemy list

Arms wide open, still unbroken
Dare to stop me now

Whatever you say, whatever you do
I will not change, won't follow you
Whatever you try, you'll never be missed
Welcome to my enemy list
Whatever you say, whatever you do
I will not change, won't follow you
Whatever you try, you fail to exist
Welcome to my enemy list

And I will leave you in misery
I will rise above, no stopping me
Whatever you try, you'll never be missed
Welcome to my enemy list

I will leave you in misery
I will rise above, no stopping me
Welcome to my enemy list
