

Five Angry Men

Dymytry

We are fallen angels with Ak47s
Alright with the fact that we'll never to go to heaven
Try to keep it together, we are here to entertain
Our anger boiling over as we're going insane
Perception is twisted it's not right
I see the whole damn world in a dark light
We know our fears and our doubts, they consume us right now
And our demons unleash all their wrath in our sound
Wrath in our sound
Wrath in our sound

We're five angry men and we're covered with scars
Embracing the madness we set higher bars
Mercury, Venus, Mars, Saturn and Jupiter
We dwell in the underworld like brothers of Lucifer
Schizophrenic, keeping pace
I'll be melting your face
Voice in my head always yelling at me
Constantly telling me

We're just Five
Who reach for the sky Five
Who are telling no lies Five
We're still alive
Five angry men nowhere ready to die
Five angry men, five angry men, five
Five angry men, five angry men, five
No one can kill us we're more than alive

We got five senses sharpened to survive this mess
We are burning with passion never settling for less
We're a pentagram on fire, forging our own way
A five leaf clover, on unluckiest of days
My words Like bullets, am I right?
Deception is present in these dark nights
We know our fears and our doubts, they consume us right now
And our demons unleash all their wrath in our sound

Five
Who reach for the sky
Five
Who are telling no lies
Five
We're still alive
Five angry men nowhere ready to die
Five angry men, five angry men, five
Five angry men, five angry men, five
No one can kill us we're more than alive

Five
Who reach for the sky
Five
Who are telling no lies
Five
We're still alive
Five angry men nowhere ready to die
Five angry men, five angry men, five

Five angry men, five angry men, five
No one can kill us we're more than alive
Five
Five
Five
Five angry men nowhere ready to die
Five
Five
No one can kill us we're more than alive
