

Three Steps to Hell

Dymytry

Come take my hand, we're all in this together
Come feel the heat, we're melting away
You're choosing death
You're ignoring the facts and reality
Just fairy tales every day

Just close your eyes, keep dreaming
Of your promised land
You ignore the future
You don't understand

Ohohooo, the end is coming closer Ohohooo
If you believe the truth, the liars tell
It's the last three steps to hell
Ohooooohoo, head first in to the sulfur Ohohoo
This is my last goodbye, a silent yell
It's the last three steps to hell
Three steps to hell

A blazing heatwave, won't affect your slumber
You're pleased as long as you're entertained
No need to heal you, wake you from your coma
Enjoy your death serenade

Polar bears on melting ice, who gives a damn
Just close your eyes
New Atlantis, Amsterdam

Ohohooo, the end is coming closer Ohohooo
If you believe the truth, the liars tell
It's the last three steps to hell
Ohooooohoo, head first in to the sulfur Ohohoo
This is my last goodbye, a silent yell
It's the last three steps to hell

There won't be another chance again
Another chance again
So say farewell to the world you were living in
It's way too late to regret
We'll pay the price for living in decadence
The world's about to reset

Ohohooo, the end is coming closer Ohohooo
If you believe the truth, the liars tell
It's the last three steps to hell
Ohooooohoo, head first in to the sulfur Ohohoo
This is my last goodbye, a silent yell
It's the last three steps to hell
Three steps to hell
