

All the Devils Are Here

Dynazty

You wanna see but you don't dare to touch
You fear the flame that is burning too much
Still you long for true vitality
I wanna burn with a raging passion
I wanna feel the taste of something real
We're the others fatal remedy

I know I should stay clear
It's true it's just as I fear
All the devils are here

Letting go before it's too late
If that is love I'd rather have your hate
I just can't have without you be my fate
If not your love at least I have your hate

Where devils roam
Angels hide in plain sight
I manifested and froze you in fright
Speak of the devil and I have appeared
We come alive in a dance of madness
You satiate when I feast upon your hate
We're the others fatalistic fate

I curse the day we met
But I'm in too deep to regret
Now all the devils are set

Letting go before it's too late
If that is love I'd rather have your hate
I just can't have without you be my fate
If not your love at least I have your hate

I know this world hurts
Let it be our strength
'Cause still life can live within
Two hearts shaped by revenge
We'll walk past the fears
That echoed our years
If mad right from the Start
Let madness free our hearts

Now all has become clear
There are no devils left to fear
Only angels are here
They're here

Letting go before it's too late
If that is love I'd rather have your hate
I just can't have without you be my fate
If not your love at least I have your hate
There is a thin line between
What is love, is hate, is pure insanity
We're dancing a dance
Dancing a dance with fatality
