

Back Again

Dynazty

You are the reason
Why I want to carry on
I need to hold on
But I waited here so long
All my lonely days are gone
All my lonely days are gone
I have nowhere else to run anymore

You, I wanna hold you one more time
I'm awake and you
I know that I was blind
I want you back again
Tell me we could fight again
Say please try again
I want you back again

You are the reason
I can see that I am wrong
I try to turn away
But I am not that strong
All my lonely days are gone
All my lonely days are gone
I have nowhere else to run anymore

You, I wanna hold you one more time
I'm awake and you
I know that I was blind
I want you back again
Tell me we could fight again
Say please try again
I want you back again

You, I wanna hold you one more time
I'm awake and you
I know that I was blind
I want you back again
Tell me we could fight again
Say please try again
I want you back again

You, I wanna hold you one more time
I'm awake and you
I know that I was blind
I want you back again
Tell me we could fight again
Say please try again
I want you back again
