

Dark Angel

Dynazty

Like a mesmerizing dream
A tantalizing fantasy
And it beckons me
Like a ghost, a phantom of the mind
A mirage of my memory
And the reverie, it burns
A knife in me turns
The breath of the wild
Calling me home

Come unto me like a remedy
Lay your touch and set me free
In the night, be the keeper of my light
Dark angel of sin
Cleanse me from within and relieve my pain
Dark angel, shine your light on me again

Time became my Heaven-sent
A convalescence splendid
I am sentient
And at last, though motionless I move, and
Through fire I breathe again
And the flame, it starts to burn
The earth stops to turn
And I hold the world
Safe in my hands

Come unto me like a remedy
Lay your touch and set me free
In the night, be the keeper of my light
Dark angel of sin
Cleanse me from within and relieve my pain
Dark angel, shine your light on me again

Come light the sleeping flame
It's the fire that wires the light into my soul
And in this last decree
Trust, for I am not flesh made to dust
I'm fire freed

It burns
A knife in me turns
The breath of the wild
Calling me home

Come unto me like a remedy
Lay your touch and set me free
In the night, be the keeper of my light
Dark angel of sin
Cleanse me from within and relieve my pain
Dark angel, shine your light on me again
