

Fire to Fight

Dynazty

There's a whispering shout
From a place that lives inside you
And it's screaming to be let out
Like a silent force that powers straight on through Stirring deep in the core
Radiating your subconscious
And it's pounding like never before
This will be the moment you live for

Let me see your eyes on fire to fight
Let the beating heart set the rhythm tonight
Call upon your will to do what is right
Rise to the light
With your eyes on fire to fight

Face the shadow you fear
Bring the darkness out from retreat
See it for what it is and you're near
Harness all its strength and you will be complete
Bring the beast to the light
As it is now yours to command
When the human heart is at right
The pinnacle of greatness is within sight

Let me see your eyes on fire to fight
Let the beating heart set the rhythm tonight
Call upon your will to do what is right
Rise to the light
With your eyes on fire to fight

Eyes on fire to fight
Heart set the rhythm tonight
Will to do what is right
Rise to the light
With your eyes on fire to fight

Eyes on fire to fight
Ooh, let the beating heart set the rhythm tonight
To do what is right
Rise to the light
With your eyes on fire to fight

Let me see your eyes on fire to fight
Let the beating heart set the rhythm tonight
Call upon your will to do what is right
Rise to the light
With your eyes on fire to fight

Eyes on fire to fight
Let the beating heart set the rhythm tonight
Call upon your will to do what is right
Rise to the light
With your eyes on fire to
With your eyes on fire to fight, yeah
With your eyes on fire to fight

Fire to fight
