

Fortune Favors the Brave

Dynazty

Lying
You're broken, beaten, and scarred
You made your wish on a fallen star
I can see who you are

Stand with me
For a new day has now dawned
Another chance to be with the strong
The new era's begun

Take my hand tonight
Unchain your heart 'til the morning light
Trust and a champion will arise
This is the way
Fortune, it favors the brave

Try and fail
It is the point of it all
No matter how many times you fall
You must answer your call
There's a place
Where preparation meet chance
There you'll be facing fate's circumstance
Now you're ready to dance

Take my hand tonight
Unchain your heart 'til the morning light
Trust and a champion will arise
This is the way
Fortune, it favors the brave
Get on in the race
Let me lead you to the sweetest taste
Victory will be yours to embrace
This is the way
Fortune, it favors the brave

Take my hand tonight
Unchain your heart 'til the morning light
Trust and a champion will arise
This is the way
Fortune always favor all the brave

Take my hand tonight
Unchain your heart
Come with me, this is the way
Fortune favors the brave, yeah
Fortune, it favors the brave
