

Power of Now

Dynazty

Your destination lies
Where your heart desires
The journey's in the here and now
Let hesitation die
Let inspiration guide you through
We hold the world within our hands

Forever we must carry on
Through moments shining in the sun
We must dare to live each day as if life's just begun
The fleeting moments last
Locked within our future past
The here and now is in our hands

The revelation lies beyond the flow of time
The power's in the here and now
The answer lives within
Not where you'll go or where you've been
We hold the world within our hands

Forever we must carry on
Through moments shining in the sun
We must dare to live each day as if life's just begun
The fleeting moments last
Locked within our future past
The here and now is in our hands
