

Power of Will

Dynazty

I'm here to burn down the past
I rise to build something to last
I shall refuse to ever bend
Through the storm that has no end

I'm gonna make the wrong be right
I want the truth to just be mine
No matter what I stand before
I'll be afraid no more

I am here. I'm awake
'Cause this world is mine to take
Through the power of will I'll find my still again
I will take the pain and let it make me strong because I believe,
There's a force no pain can kill
The power of will

No law, no words will hold me down
I'll show a truth that has no bounds
I've seen the bridge over all grief
It's the power of belief

I'm gonna cross it all with ease
I'm gonna bend realities
I know the way out of the dark
I hold the compass in my heart

I am here. I'm awake
'Cause this world is mine to take
Through the power of will I'll find my still again
I will take the pain and let it make me strong because I believe,
There's a force no pain can kill
The power of will

I'll tear down the past, build something to last
I'll walk through the towering shadows been cast
Through power of will I'll shatter the still Turn every stone 'til all the lies have been killed
I'll bend never break, I'll earn what I make
I'll stand up for what I believe is at stake
My will's made of stone, it's infused to the bone
It's a fire lit force with the potency of a cyclone

Through the power of will I'll find my still again
I will take the pain and let it make me strong because I believe,
There's a force no pain can kill
Through the power of will I'll find my still again
Through the power of will I'll find my still again
The power of will
